

Cityparents Ltd Data protection policy

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Louisa Symington-Mills, CEO and Founder, Cityparents Ltd is the Data Controller for the purposes of the EU General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018.
- 1.2. We collect and use certain types of personal information about the following categories of individuals:
  - 1.2.1. employees;
  - 1.2.2. Cityparents, Cityworks and Cityflex network and website users;
  - 1.2.3. Cityparents, Cityworks and Cityflex corporate clients;
  - 1.2.4. directors and other officers;and other individuals who come into contact with us.
- 1.3. We will process this personal information in the following ways:
  - 1.3.1. providing clients and website users with the information or services they have asked for
  - 1.3.2. sending clients and users communications with their consent that may be of interest, including marketing information about our services and activities
  - 1.3.3. when necessary, for carrying out client and user obligations under any contract between us
  - 1.3.4. seeking client and user views on the services or activities we carry on so that we can make improvements
  - 1.3.5. maintaining our organisational records and ensuring we know how clients and users prefer to be contacted
  - 1.3.6. analysing the operation of our website and analysing user website behaviour to improve the website and its usefulness
  - 1.3.7. collecting anonymous information for every visitor that views the website includes pages viewed, date and time, and browser type. IP numbers are not stored, but are temporarily used to determine domain type and in some cases, geographic region. We do not make any association between this information and a visitor's identity;
  - 1.3.8. processing user applications to the Cityparents Mentoring Scheme - this may include sharing the personal information given in a member's application form/profile, as necessary, with other members of the Cityparents Mentoring Scheme, for the purpose of matching appropriate mentors with mentees
  - 1.3.9. conducting aggregate analysis and developing business intelligence that enables us to operate, protect, make informed decisions and report on the performance of our business
  - 1.3.10. to comply with statutory and contractual obligations relating to employment;
  - 1.3.11. to comply with regulatory requirements;
  - 1.3.12. to comply with statutory and other legal obligations relating to safeguarding, if any individual in your organisation comes into contact with children as part of his or her duties.

- 1.4. This policy is intended to ensure that personal information is dealt with properly and securely and in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and other related legislation. It will apply to information regardless of the way it is used or recorded and applies for as long as the information is held.
- 1.5. The GDPR applies to all computerised data and manual files if they come within the definition of a filing system. Broadly speaking, a filing system is one where the data is structured in some way that it is searchable on the basis of specific criteria (so you would be able to use something like the individual's name to find their information), and if this is the case, it does not matter whether the information is located in a different physical location.
- 1.6. This policy will be updated as necessary to reflect best practice, or amendments made to the GDPR or other relevant legislation, and shall be reviewed every two years.

2. PERSONAL DATA

- 2.1. 'Personal data' are information that identifies an individual and includes information that would identify an individual to the person to whom it is disclosed because of any special knowledge that they have or can obtain<sup>1</sup>. A sub-set of personal data is known as 'special categories of personal data'<sup>2</sup>. This special category data are information that relates to:
  - 2.1.1. race or ethnic origin;
  - 2.1.2. political opinions;
  - 2.1.3. religious or philosophical beliefs;
  - 2.1.4. trade union membership;
  - 2.1.5. physical or mental health;
  - 2.1.6. an individual's sex life or sexual orientation;
  - 2.1.7. genetic or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person.
- 2.2. Special category data are given special protection, and additional safeguards apply if this information is to be collected and used.
- 2.3. Information relating to criminal convictions shall only be held and processed where there is legal authority to do so.

3. THE DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLES

- 3.1. The six data protection principles as laid down in the GDPR must be followed at all times:

<sup>1</sup> For example, if asked for the number of female employees, and you only have one female employee, this would be personal data if it was possible to obtain a list of employees from the website.

<sup>2</sup> Previously known under the UK Data Protection Act 1998 as 'sensitive personal data', but with the addition of genetic and biometric data. The definition previously included information about criminal convictions – this is now treated separately and subject to even tighter controls.

- 3.1.1. personal data shall be processed fairly, lawfully and in a transparent manner, and processing shall not be lawful unless one of the processing conditions (see paragraph 4 can be met;
  - 3.1.2. personal data shall be collected for specific, explicit, and legitimate purposes, and shall not be further processed in a manner incompatible with those purposes;
  - 3.1.3. personal data shall be adequate, relevant, and limited to what is necessary for the purpose(s) for which they are being processed;
  - 3.1.4. personal data shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;
  - 3.1.5. personal data processed for any purpose(s) shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for that/those purpose(s);
  - 3.1.6. personal data shall be processed in such a way that ensures appropriate security of the data, including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction, or damage, using appropriate technical or organisational measures.
- 3.2. In addition to this, we are committed to ensuring that at all times, anyone dealing with personal data shall be mindful of the individual's rights under the law (as explained in more detail in paragraphs 7 and 8 below).
- 3.3. We are committed to complying with the principles in paragraph 3.1 at all times. This means that we will:
- 3.3.1. inform individuals as to the purpose of collecting any information from them, as and when we ask for it;
  - 3.3.2. be responsible for checking the quality and accuracy of the information;
  - 3.3.3. regularly review the records held to ensure that information is not held longer than is necessary, and that it has been held in accordance with our Records Retention Policy;
  - 3.3.4. ensure that when information is authorised for disposal it is done appropriately;
  - 3.3.5. ensure appropriate security measures to safeguard personal information, whether it is held in paper files or on our computer system, and follow the relevant security policy requirements at all times;
  - 3.3.6. share personal information with others only when it is necessary and legally appropriate to do so;
  - 3.3.7. set out clear procedures for responding to requests for access to personal information, known as subject access requests;
  - 3.3.8. report any breaches of the GDPR in accordance with the procedure in paragraph 9 below.

4. CONDITIONS FOR PROCESSING IN THE FIRST DATA PROTECTION PRINCIPLE

- 4.1. The individual has given consent that is specific to the particular type of processing activity, and that consent is informed, unambiguous and freely given;
- 4.2. The processing is necessary for the performance of a contract, to which the individual is a party, or is necessary for the purpose of taking steps with regard to entering into a contract with the individual, at their request;

- 4.3. The processing is necessary for the performance of a legal obligation to which we are subject;
- 4.4. The processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the individual or another;
- 4.5. The processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, or in the exercise of official authority vested in us;
- 4.6. The processing is necessary for our legitimate interests or those of a third party, except where this interest is overridden by the rights and freedoms of the individual concerned. More details of this are given in the Privacy Notice <https://www.cityworksforum.co.uk/help/privacy-statement.htm>.

5. DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL DATA

- 5.1. The following list includes the most usual reasons that we will authorise disclosure of personal data to a third party:
  - 5.1.1. to selected third parties if we run an event in conjunction with them. We will let clients and website users known to whom their data is supplied and how their data is used when they register for any event.
  - 5.1.2. to third parties who provide services for us, for example Mail Chimp, which administers our mailing lists or Moving Ahead which administers the Cityparents Mentoring Scheme. We select our third party service providers with care. We provide these third parties with the information that is necessary to provide the service and we will have an agreement in place that requires them to operate with the same care over data protection as we do.
  - 5.1.3. to give a confidential reference relating to a current or former employee;
  - 5.1.4. for the prevention or detection of crime;
  - 5.1.5. for the assessment of any tax or duty;
  - 5.1.6. where it is necessary to exercise a right or obligation conferred or imposed by law upon us (other than an obligation imposed by contract)
  - 5.1.7. for the purpose of, or in connection with, legal proceedings (including prospective legal proceedings);
  - 5.1.8. for the purpose of obtaining legal advice;
  - 5.1.9. for research, historical and statistical purposes (so long as this neither supports decisions in relation to individuals, nor causes substantial damage or distress);
- 5.2. We may receive requests from third parties (i.e. those other than the data subject, us, and our employees) to disclose personal data we hold about individuals. This information will not generally be disclosed unless one of the specific exemptions under the GDPR which allow disclosure applies, or where disclosure is necessary for the legitimate interests of us or the third party concerned.
- 5.3. All requests for the disclosure of personal data must be sent to Louisa Symington-Mills, who will review and decide whether to make the disclosure, ensuring that reasonable steps are taken to verify the identity of the requesting third party before making any disclosure.

6. SECURITY OF PERSONAL DATA

- 6.1. We will take reasonable steps to ensure that members of staff will only have access to personal data where it is necessary for them to carry out their duties. All staff will be made aware of this Policy and their duties under the GDPR. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that all personal information is held securely and is not accessible to unauthorised persons.
- 6.2. We have fully assessed our own GDPR compliance both in terms of the services we offer to our customers and in terms of our own internal policies and procedures
- 6.3. We have appropriate technical and personnel protocols in place to ensure the security of your data
- 6.4. We carry out due diligence against any sub-processors or other third-party processors we use to ensure their GDPR compliance (such as data centres)

7. SUBJECT ACCESS REQUESTS

- 7.1. Anybody who makes a request to see any personal information held about them by us is making a subject access request. All information relating to the individual, including that held in electronic or manual files should be considered for disclosure, provided that they constitute a “filing system” (see paragraph 1.5).
- 7.2. All requests should be sent to Louisa Symington-Mills within three working days of receipt, and must be dealt with in full without delay and at the latest within one month of receipt.
- 7.3. Where a child or young person does not have sufficient understanding to make his or her own request (usually those under the age of twelve, or over twelve but with a special educational need which makes understanding their information rights more difficult), a person with parental responsibility can make a request on their behalf. Louisa Symington-Mills must, however, be satisfied that:
  - 7.3.1. the child or young person lacks sufficient understanding; and
  - 7.3.2. the request made on behalf of the child or young person is in their interests.
- 7.4. Any individual, including a child or young person with ownership of their own information rights, may appoint another person to request access to their records. In such circumstances, we must have written evidence that the individual has authorised the person to make the application and Louisa Symington-Mills must be confident of the identity of the individual making the request and of the authorisation of the individual to whom the request relates.
- 7.5. Access to records will be refused in instances where an exemption applies, for example, information sharing may place the individual at risk of significant harm or jeopardise police investigations into any alleged offence(s).
- 7.6. A subject access request must be made in writing to privacy@cityparents.co.uk. We may ask for any further information reasonably required to locate the information.
- 7.7. An individual only has the automatic right to access information about themselves, and care needs to be taken not to disclose the personal data of third parties where consent has not been given, or where seeking consent would not be reasonable, and it would not be appropriate to release the information. Particular care must be taken in the case of any complaint or dispute to ensure confidentiality is protected.

- 7.8. All files must be reviewed by Louisa Symington-Mills before any disclosure takes place. Access will not be granted before this review has taken place.
- 7.9. Where all the data in a document cannot be disclosed, a permanent copy should be made and the data obscured or retyped if this is more sensible. A copy of the full document and the altered document should be retained, with the reason why the document was altered.

Exemptions to Access by Data Subjects

Where a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings, the information is likely to be exempt from disclosure unless the privilege is waived.

8. OTHER RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS

- 8.1. We have an obligation to comply with the rights of individuals under the law, and take these rights seriously. The following section sets out how we will comply with the right to:
  - 8.1.1. object to processing;
  - 8.1.2. rectification;
  - 8.1.3. erasure; and
  - 8.1.4. data portability.

Right to object to processing

- 8.2. An individual has the right to object to the processing of their personal data on the grounds of pursuit of a public interest or legitimate interest (grounds 4.5 and 4.6 above) where they do not believe that those grounds are made out.
- 8.3. Where such an objection is made, it must be sent to Louisa Symington-Mills within two working days of receipt, and Louisa Symington-Mills will assess whether there are compelling legitimate grounds to continue processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the individuals, or whether the information is required for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal proceedings.
- 8.4. Louisa Symington-Mills shall be responsible for notifying the individual of the outcome of their assessment within five working days of receipt of the objection.
- 8.5. Where personal data is being processed for direct marketing purposes, an individual has the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing (which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing) and his or her personal data shall no longer be processed by us for direct marketing purposes.

Right to rectification

- 8.6. An individual has the right to request the rectification of inaccurate data without undue delay. Where any request for rectification is received, it should be sent to Louisa Symington-Mills within two working days of receipt, and where adequate proof of inaccuracy is given, the data shall be amended as soon as reasonably practicable, and the individual notified.
- 8.7. Where there is a dispute as to the accuracy of the data, the request and reasons for refusal shall be noted alongside the data, and communicated to the individual. The individual shall be given the option of an appeal direct to the Information Commissioner.

- 8.8. An individual also has a right to have incomplete information completed by providing the missing data, and any information submitted in this way shall be updated without undue delay.

Right to erasure

- 8.9. Individuals have a right, in certain circumstances, to have data permanently erased without undue delay. This right arises in the following circumstances:
- 8.9.1. where the personal data is no longer necessary for the purpose or purposes for which it was collected and processed;
  - 8.9.2. where consent is withdrawn and there is no other legal basis for the processing;
  - 8.9.3. where an objection has been raised under the right to object, and found to be legitimate;
  - 8.9.4. where personal data is being unlawfully processed (usually where one of the conditions for processing cannot be met);
  - 8.9.5. where there is a legal obligation on us to delete.
- 8.10. Louisa Symington-Mills will make a decision regarding any application for erasure of personal data, and will balance the request against the exemptions provided for in the law. Where a decision is made to erase the data, and this data has been passed to other controllers, and/or has been made public, reasonable attempts to inform those controllers of the request shall be made.

Right to restrict processing

- 8.11. In the following circumstances, processing of an individual's personal data may be restricted:
- 8.11.1. where the accuracy of data has been contested, during the period when we are attempting to verify the accuracy of the data;
  - 8.11.2. where processing has been found to be unlawful, and the individual has asked that there be a restriction on processing rather than erasure;
  - 8.11.3. where data would normally be deleted, but the individual has requested that their information be kept for the purpose of the establishment, exercise or defence of a legal claim;
  - 8.11.4. where there has been an objection made under paragraph 8.2, pending the outcome of any decision.

Right to portability

If an individual wants to send his or her personal data to another organisation, he or she has a right to request that you provide his/her information in a structured, commonly used, and machine readable format. If a request for this is made, it should be forwarded to Louisa Symington-Mills within two working days of receipt, and Louisa Symington-Mills will review and revert as necessary.

9. BREACH OF ANY REQUIREMENT OF THE GDPR

- 9.1. Any breach of the GDPR, including a breach of any of the data protection principles of the Data Protection Act 1998 (as amended or replaced from time to time) shall be reported as soon as it is discovered, to Louisa Symington-Mills.
- 9.2. Once notified, Louisa Symington-Mills shall assess:

- 9.2.1. the extent of the breach;
  - 9.2.2. the risks to the data subjects as a consequence of the breach;
  - 9.2.3. any security measures in place that will protect the information;
  - 9.2.4. any measures that can be taken immediately to mitigate the risk to the individuals.
- 9.3. Unless Louisa Symington-Mills concludes that there is unlikely to be any risk to individuals from the breach, it must be notified to the Information Commissioner's Office within seventy-two hours of the breach having come to our attention, unless a delay can be justified.
- 9.4. The Information Commissioner shall be told:
- 9.4.1. details of the breach, including the volume of data at risk, and the number and categories of data subjects;
  - 9.4.2. the contact point for any enquiries (which shall usually be Louisa Symington-Mills);
  - 9.4.3. the likely consequences of the breach;
  - 9.4.4. measures proposed or already taken to address the breach.
- 9.5. If the breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of the affected individuals, Louisa Symington-Mills shall notify affected data subjects of the breach without undue delay, unless the data would be unintelligible to those not authorised to access it, or measures have been taken to mitigate any risk to the affected individuals.
- 9.6. Data subjects shall be told:
- 9.6.1. the nature of the breach;
  - 9.6.2. who to contact with any questions; and
  - 9.6.3. measures taken to mitigate any risks.
- 9.7. Louisa Symington-Mills shall be responsible for instigating an investigation into the breach, including how it happened, and whether it could have been prevented. Any recommendations for further training or a change in procedure shall be reviewed by the Cityparents Board of Directors and a decision made about implementation of those recommendations.

10. CONTACT

If anyone has any concerns or questions in relation to this policy they should contact Louisa Symington-Mills or privacy@cityparents.co.uk
